MODEL QUESTION 2

Unit: 6, Lesson : 8

Read the following text carefully and answer the question no. 3 and 4:

It was a large lovely garden, with soft green grass. Here and there over the grass stood beautiful flowers. Also there were fruit trees around the garden. One day the Giant came back. He went to see his friend in a distant land and stayed with them for seven years. When he arrived he saw children playing in his garden. "What are you doing here?" cried the Giant in a very gruff voice. The children ran away. Every afternoon the children came back from school and used to go and play in the Giant's garden. My own garden is my own garden," said the Giant. "Anyone can understand that. And I will allow nobody to play in it." So he built a high wall all-round the garden and put up a notice board.

MODEL QUESTION 3

Unit: 6, Lesson : 9

Read the following text carefully and answer the question no. 3 and 4:

The children had now nowhere to play. There were no gardens around and the roads were busy and crowded. After school they used to go round the high wall and talk about the beautiful garden inside. "How happy we were there!", they said to each other.

Then came the spring. And all over the country there were flowers and there were birds. Only in the garden of the Giant it was still winter. Here there were no birds singing, no flowers blossoming. There were only snow and frost and north wind in it.

"I cannot understand why the spring is so late in coming," said the Giant. He was sitting at the window of his big castle and looking out at his cold, dry, lifeless garden. "I hope there will be a change in the weather."

But neither spring nor summer came to his garden.
